ORDER

The applicant was commissioned in the Air Force on 22.06.2002 after having served in the Indian Air Force for about 15 years in the ranks. His grievance is against his retirement at the age of 54 years. Grievance reveals from the facts that he had heard that there was proposal to increase the age of retirement of all officers but was not actually done. Thus, representation dated 09.12.2021 was made for retention in service beyond the age of 54 years but the same was allegedly not considered by the competent authority.

The applicant in person seeks time to argue the case.

The applicant served in the Defence Security Corps for 14 years, 03 months and 25 days. His request for grant of service pension after condoning the shortfall has been rejected on the ground of non-permissibility of condition of shortfall in cases of second pension.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the said reason is illegal and unsustainable. Regulation 44 of the Pension Regulations for the Army, Part-1 (2008) specifically provides for condonation of deficiency in service upto 12 months and the same is not qualified by the applicability thereof only to cases of first pension.

The husband of the applicant was discharged from Indian Army on 01.05.1969. Thereafter, the couple went to New Zealand to live with their son, where the husband died on 29.09.2013. Representation for grant of family pension has been rejected on the ground that the name of the applicant is not recorded in the service documents of the husband as his legally wedded wife. Order of rejection is dated 07.02.2014. Affidavit annexed with the Original Application has been attested in Melbourne, Australia.

In view of the above, the Original Application is beyond limitation. Moreover, the affidavit sworn and attested in Australia cannot be used in India.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the applicant prays for time to argue the case.

ORDER

The husband of the applicant passed away due to cancer. The death has been declared as neither attributable to military service nor aggravated by it. Thus, the request of the applicant for grant of special family pension has been rejected.

Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that in law, presumption is in favour of the applicant unless the same is rebutted. There is no rebuttal thereto as the medical authority has only said that the death was neither attributable to military service nor aggravated by it in view of Paras 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the Guide to Medical Officers, 2008. The said paragraphs have actually been misread and misinterpreted.
